Summary

Senior Media & Strategy Manager with 6+ years of experience building integrated media and brand strategies for leading financial services, consumer tech, and FMCG brands. Experienced in full-funnel campaign planning, performance analysis, brand health metrics, senior stakeholder presentations, and budget allocation. Recently owned annual media strategies for Avito's Jobs and Auto verticals, with a focus on connecting brand objectives, media KPIs, and BHT metrics.

Work Experience

RoRe Group (ex. Publicis)

Moscow, Russia

SENIOR MEDIA STRATEGIST

March 2025 – December 2025

Client: Avito (Jobs, Auto)

- Independently developed annual media strategies, translating business/marketing goals into media recommendations and clear channel roles
- Defended strategies to marketing directors, securing client sign-off on strategic direction, campaign priorities, and measurement approach
- Built recommendations based on product objectives, audience insights, competitive context, category dynamics, and expected impact on brand funnel/BHT metrics
- Prepared strategic conclusions from PBA, comparing planned vs. actual campaign performance and turning learnings into recommendations for future campaigns
- Managed junior media managers and coordinated cross-functional inputs across internal teams to deliver strategic projects on time

SENIOR MEDIA PLANNER

October 2020 – May 2022

Client: Mondelēz (Alpen Gold, Milka, Picnic — the biggest chocolate brands on the Russian market)

- Planned and conducted full media offline (mainly TV) and online (incl. special projects and bloggers activations) campaigns with budgets of about 3M USD per campaign
- Prepared campaigns' proposals (effectiveness evaluation and budget optimization) and presented them to the client
- Liaised with creatives agencies and client partners to create unique and innovative projects: one of the campaigns I conducted (Alpen Gold MaxFun) was nominated for the best branded effect in 2021 in Eastern Europe by TikTok Awards. After the campaign the increase in sales was +13% given the whole category decline of 8%
- Provided day-to-day communication with local and global client's teams and actively participated in meetings
- Performed budget management tasks: monthly client's flowcharts and budget updates for all digital media buys
- Checked media plans and followed up with cross functional teams
- Created weekly campaign reports, post-campaign analyses, and ad hoc analyses
- Proactively identified potential issues with the client that could have impacted campaigns performance, suggesting resolutions
- Created and presented media strategies and competitive analyses
- Improved workflow (quality and timing)
